O. C. DOWNING..EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

SATURDAY.....OCTOBER 7, 1876.

BROOKLYN has the yellow fever. She is excited thereat.

TO-MORROW is San Francisco's Centennial. The Spanish Missionaries settled there October 8th, 1776.

GOV. TILDEN is about to publish an illustrated edition of his war record.—Burlinging Hawkeye.

H. A. PATTERSON, one of the most active speculators of the New York Stock Exchange, failed yesterday.

THE Carson Mint gun exploded at Empire Thursday evening while they were firing it. Nobury hurt.

THE New York Herald's Ohio correspondent admits that the Republican tide has risen above all point of danger.

THE oil region of Pennsylvania is estimated to be worth at least $25,000,000 more than it was three months ago.

THE Secretary of War yesterday made a call for the redemption of $10,000,000 of the five-twenty May and November bonds of 1865.

IT has be ascertained that a large organization of beggars exists in New York, presided over by a woman, and having a secretary and treasurer.

WE learn that State Supt. of Public Instruction Kelly is going to Trenton, New Jersey, to meet his wife and bring her back with him.

SHIPPING of wheat is lively. Forty-three cargoes were shipped last month from San Francisco for Europe, the aggregate centals being 1,870,200.

IT is understood that Jay Gould seriously contemplates the organization of a company to build a railroad from Salt Lake westward over a more southern route to the Pacific.

CHRISTIAN K. ROSS has written a life of Charley and his search for him. It reads like a sensational romance, and would be regarded impossible were it not known to be true.

AT the Paris exhibition of 1878 the Prince of Wales is to be the chief of the British Commission, and the Crown Prince of Germany will be at the head of the German Commission.

GOOD Durham bulls, averaging 800 to 900 pounds in weight, are worth in the San Francisco market $4,000 to $5,000, heifers, $1,000, and for Southdown bucks $200 to $500 is asked.

TWEED and his Secretary are on the way from Vigo to New York. Tweed is confined to keep him from jumping overboard as they fear he might prefer to find land before arriving at New York.

THE President yesterday pardoned Wm. Bodenheimer, who pleaded guilty of embezzling public money while Receiver of the Land Office at Springfield, Mo., and was sentenced to three years' imprisonment and a fine of $15,000.

MONTANA men in the Black Hills have voted down a proposition to organize a government in Deadwood City, and have passed resolutions declaring hanging the penalty for wrong doing, and Judge Lynch's court the only one to be recognized.

THE President and his wife returned to Washington yesterday. No meeting of the Cabinet was held because nearly all of the members were out of town. He received many visitors and attended to some business with Secretary Morrill and Postmaster-General Tyner.

A DISPATCH from Chicago, dated the 6th says: "The prospects for Tuesday are continually growing better. Unless all signs fail the Republicans will carry the day. The only danger is from Democratic colonization and illegal voting in the Democratic districts."

THAT most loathsome of diseases, the small-pox, has at last reached Ogden, and the Mayor has ordered the erection of a pest house in Ogden Cañon, for the accommodation of patients. We have heard of no cases in Salt Lake.

THE NEW PACIFIC ROADS.

The bonds of the first Northern Pacific corporation are now nearly all converted into the new issues, and those who have not availed themselves of the change should hasten to do so. In the mean time many of the large holders have converted their bonds into wheat land on the Red River and Minnesota. G. W. Cass, the former President; B. B. Cheney, of Boston, and Dalrymple, the great Minnesota farmer, have 10,800 acres in Dakota, 1,300, in wheat this year. A Canadian has a field of 10,000 acres; John Mosher, of Canandaigue, New York, 20,000; Fred. Billing, of Woodstock, Vt., 19,000; Charlemagne Tower, of Philadelphia, 20,000, besides 29,000 in Minnesota; a Connecticut land company, 30,000; Rev. Dr. Hawley, of the same State, 2,640 acres; Thomas H. Canfield, of Burlington, 2,880, and many other people large amounts. These investors were allowed the par value of their bonds in land at from $2.50 per acre upward. Comparatively little of these great estates is yet under the plough, but as a great wheat country it rivals California.

Colonel Scott has just started on a trip to Texas to visit his road, and see if he can spy Huntington looming over the mountains toward the Pacific. If Scott's road was strung out in a line it would make 444 miles, but unfortunately it is in two parallel lines, and reaches only this distance. The two lines span half a dozen counties of Texas, east and west, and are about 100 miles apart. The northern or "transcontinental division" runs from Texarkana on the Arkansas boundary straight west to Sherman on the Texas Central (a north and south road,) and has just been completed. The Southern or Texas Pacific proper runs from Shreveport, La., straight west to Dallas, also on the Texas Central, and this year has been pushed on through another county, or to Fort Worth, forty miles. Both roads have earned $1,564,000 during the year, $672,000 being net, by which the projector is "much encouraged." But forty miles a year is pretty slow.

FIRE! FIRE!

Reno, particularly the business portion, is compactly built. So close indeed are houses that fire will leap from one to another easily. Knowing this a mutual dependence should make us each careful, not only for our own property but for that of our neighbors and of the entire town. For a larger portion of the year wind blows very steadily and strongly, and at such times the merest suspicion of a fire would soon be fanned and coaxed into a disastrous conflagration in which whole blocks will be swept away in an hour and the accumulation of years vanish in a twinkling. Hence we say that this mutual dependance should make us exceedingly careful of fire. Hot ashes thrown out where the wind can spread it around is exceedingly hazardous; building fires with kerosene, benzine or turpentine is but courting conflagration; defective flues or stovepipes will as certainly make themselves known by destroying property as that night follows day.

Not being an incorporated town we have no fire marshal, but this will not prevent each citizen from acting in that capacity as far as his own property is concerned by carefully inspecting every flue or stovepipe or lamp. The little fine weather we will have before Winter sets in should be utilized in making these very needy preparations. Stovepipes frequently become unjointed between ceiling and roof. In such places they should be strongly riveted together. Ten cents worth of rivets and a few sheets of tin in such places will eventually save hundreds of dollars. Every cent invested in guarding against accidential fire will pay interest at the rate of thousands of per cent. We urge all then to look well to these things, not only as a matter of general safety, but as a splendid investment.

"THIS war is a perfect outrage, and I will lend no assistance to its prosecution."—Samuel J. Tilden, in 1861.

"I would prefer to go into this war, if I knew I was to die, or be killed in the course of it, rather than live through and after it without taking any part in it."—Rutherford B Hayes, in 1861.

AN effort is being made to divide California into two States, on the line of Santa Cruz county, giving fourteen counties in the south for the new State, with thirty thousand voters and a hundred millions taxable property.

DISTRICT COURT.—The case of State vs. Lillie occupied the Court yesterday morning, but while eating dinner John Harwood, one of the jurors, was taken sick, and the Court adjourned until this morning, when if he is not sufficiently recovered to serve, a new man will have to be sworn in, and the whole case, which had been in court a day and a half, gone over with again. This is unfortunate as the evidence was all in and the case was ready for argument when the postponement occurred.

LINGARD.—On Monday and Tuesday evenings, 9th and 10th, Miss Dickey Lingard will appear at Dyer's Hall in "Second Love" and "Cut off with a Dollar," supported by a full dramatic company. Miss Lingard receives much praise from the papers in the towns in when she has appeared. Admission $1, reserved seats, without extra charge, can be secured at the postoffice. C. E. Martin, the advance agent, was in town yesterday making the necessary contracts.

STEAMER.—The steamer was out for trial yesterday at the cistern on Plaza street. Thursday morning a hot box caused the steamer to be disabled for a while during the fire. A new one has been put in, hence the practice of yesterday, which resulted satisfactorily. Forethought like this and keeping the cisterns well filled with water, is of vital importance, as all will admit.

TEST.—The crew of No. 48, our yard engine, have tested their hose and find that it will stand a pressure of 110 pounds. During the fire they were afraid to put on more than 90 pounds, fearing that the hose would burst should they put on any more—a wise conclusion under the circumstances.

A LITTLE wind yesterday raised a little dust and made a contrast to the good weather we have been enjoying lately.

THE WEEKLY JOURNAL.

The WEEKLY JOURNAL, published every Saturday, will be furnished to those desiring it at $4.00 per year in advance. It will contain the local news of the week, a careful summary of the State, Pacific Coast and mining news, together with a variety of miscellaneous and editorial matter, containing more reading than any weekly paper ever published in the county. Those desiring to subscribe for the WEEKLY JOURNAL will please call at the publication office.

CHARACTERISTIC.—A passing emigrant overheard a merchant say that eggs were "five bits a dozen," yesterday. He turned and asked "if that meant five dimes or 62½ cents." This was but an evidence of the existence of the spirit which our eastern cousins display by quarreling over five cents or refusing to receive a piece of money with a hole in it. Our careless way of making change gives the eastern method a decided look of meanness.

NOTHING in Judge Gilson's Court yesterday of a criminal nature. Either those who frequent this tribunal for sentence were too drunk, or had stolen themselves rich at the recent fire, or had suddenly become honest, or lazy. Be this as it may very little criminal business has been transacted lately.

INQUEST.—Coroner Jones held an inquest on the remains of August ——, the baker who was burned to death in the fire Thursday morning, yesterday, but elicited nothing further than we have already given. The remains of the unfortunate man were interred yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

MACALLISTER.—A fair audience greeted this great magician last evening. John Kyle, who reside in the southern portion of town, got the $10 gold piece offered as chief prize. This evening the principal prize will be $15 in gold. This afternoon there will be a matinee, at 2½ o'clock, to which the admission is only 25 cents.

REED was around yesterday asking the citizens to subscribe to the new bell fund, and right nobly they responded. When all of the business men have a chance to put their names down on that list we will have money enough to buy a bell that will awaken every man in the county.

CLEARING.—Workmen were busy yesterday clearing away the debris of the late fire, preparatory to rebuilding. Smoke is still rising from portions of the ruins. New sidewalks have been put down and other repairs made already.

WEEKLY.—We are in receipt of Vol. 1, No. 1, of the San Francisco Stock Exchange. The daily is a recognized authority on mining matters, and the weekly, which is collected from it, will be found handy for reference and filing.

THE brick-layers started the brick work of the second story of the Odd Fellows' hall yesterday. The corners are being tastefully ornamented with granite blocks. The joists of second floor are in place.

THE new silver quarter-dollars have the motto "In God we trust" on them, while the half-dollars have not. Is it possible the confidence of the Government in the Deity does not extend beyond two-bits.

CISTERNS.—Yesterday the several cisterns around town were examined and placed in thorough order. This action cannot be too well attended to, as in times of fire they show their worth.

LATE.—Trains were late yesterday from each way on the Central Pacific. Nothing in the way of accident had occurred, but the trains were behind hand nevertheless.

"Cooper, Bailey & Co.'s 10 Allied Shows in One" appeared in Sacramento on Wednesday. The caravan went East from there—having "done" the coast.

SEVEN cars of emigrants and twenty-three cars of cattle went west on No. 6 yesterday.

LATEST news from Wyoming is that General Crook has a strong command, mostly of fresh troops, ready to start for the haunts of Crazy Horse and Sitting Bull's Sioux. He will again take the field in person, and keep pushing the enemy relentlessly. Great knowledge of the hostile country and its characteristics has been acquired. Crazy Horse is supposed to be near the North Platte, on the Little Missouri.

A MEMBER of the Oregon Legisture has introduced an amendment to the election law of that State intended to secure a greater protection to the purity of the ballot. It requires the clerks of the election to write on the back of the ticket the name of the person voting it, when the vote is sworn in under a challenge. The principal objection raised to the measure is, that it exposes the secrecy of the ballot; while on the other hand it is claimed that it would serve in the detection of fraud, and facilitate the investigation of votes in cases of contest.

THE campaign story about Hayes having gobbled $400, taken from a bounty jumper who deserted and was captured and executed is finally disposed of. An investigation has shown by affidavits of original witnesses that the deserter was tried by a court martial, that the judge advocate of that court martial received the $400, who used it in obtaining a recruit in place of the deserter. Good. Next.

A LIVELY concourse of people assembled on the San Jose Fair ground Thursday to witness the contest for the 2:22 race for $950. The entries were Geo. Treat, Lou Whipple, Gold Note, Gov. Stanford, Dirigo and Jerome. Treat was the favorite in the polls, bringing as much as all the others combined. He won in three straight heats, time 2:22¼ and 2:27¼—time of third heat not given.

BISHOP WHIPPLE still believes that if the Indians are all poured into the Indian Territory and well shaken up together each tribe will neutralize the other, and the whole mess will be as quiet as stale soda water or Salt River a month after election. It takes a deal of faith to be a philantoropist.

THE sewing machines have all taken the very highest awards which the Centennial judges could confer. The piano companies have been complimented in like manner. At least telegrams to that effect have been sent from the office of the different companies to the leading papers of the East.

THERE has been great boasting over the statement that Tilden was elected Governor of New York by 53,000, when his majority was only 38,411. Over one-third of this majority was obtained in the city of Brooklyn, while in the State outside of New York and Brooklyn he was defeated by 17,077.

A PAPER called the Imperialist has been started in Chicago. It favors the establishment of an Empire in the United States, and advocates the claim of William Washington, a nephew of our first President, for Emperor.

THE yellow fever is epidemic in New Orleans.

DRY GOODS! DRY GOODS!—Grey & Isaacs, the rulers and regulators of prices of the dry goods trade in Reno, are doing an immense business in their new store on Virginia street, next door to Beck & Co., and opposite their old stand. This wide awake young firm has revolutionized the dry goods trade in Reno, and intend maintaining their great popularity, if low prices and fair dealing will accomplish it. They have extraordinary facilities for purchasing goods, and are daily in receipt of the latest novelties known to the European and American trade. Ladies will save money by patronizing this young house, for not only have they convinced the entire population of Reno that they have sold goods lower than the same could be bought in San Francisco, but are determined to still continue to run in the same channel. Notwithstanding the enormous advance in the price of silks they still continue to sell them at 30 per cent. below old prices. Special reduction in carpets and dress goods. Three-ply carpet, $1. Two-ply carpet, 62½ cents. Hemp carpet, 25c. Camel's Hair Cloths for ladies suitings, at 25 and 45 cents, original price 62½ cents and $1. The sale will only last a few days, and commences Thursday, the 5th of Oct., next to Pollard's Hotel. *

Resolutions and Platform of the Republican National Convention.

FIRST—The United States of America is a nation and not a league, and by the combined workings of National and State Governments under their respective Constitutions the rights of every citizen are secured at home and protected abroad and the common welfare promoted.

SECOND—The Republican party has preserved these governments to the hundredth anniversary of the nation's birth, and they are now embodiments of the great truths spoken at its cradle—that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that for the attainment of these ends governments have been instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, and until these truths are cheerfully obeyed, or if needed, are vigorously enforced, the work of the Republican party is unfinished.

THIRD—The permanent pacification of the Southern section of the Union, and the complete protection of its citizens in the free enjoyment of all their rights are duties to which the Republican party stands sacredly pledged. The power to provide for the enforcement of the principles embodied, in the recent constitutional amendment is vested by those amendments in the Congress of the United States—and all declare it so to be—the solemn obligation of the Legislative and Executive Departments of the Government is to put into immediate and vigorous exercise all the constitutional powers for removing any just causes of discontent on the part of any class and, for securing to every American citizen complete liberty and exact equality in the exercise of civil, political and public rights. To this end we imperatively demand a Congress and a Chief Executive whose courage and fidelity to these duties shall not falter until these results are placed beyond dispute or recall. In the first Act of Congress signed by President Grant, the National Government sought to remove any doubts of its duties to discharge all just obligations to public creditors, and solemnly pledged its faith to make a provision at the earliest possible period for the redemption of United States notes in coin. Commercial prosperity, public morals and the national credit now demand that this promise be fulfilled by a continuous and steady progress to specie payments. Under the Constitution the President and heads of departments are to make nominations for office, the Senate is to advise and consent to the appointments, and the House of Representatives is to accuse and prosecute faithless officers. The best interests of the public service demand that these distinctions shall be respected, and that Senators and Representatives, who may be judges and accusers, should not dictate appointments to offices. The invariable rule for appointments should have reference to the honesty, fidelity and capacity of the appointees, giving to the party in power those places where the harmony and vigor of the Administration requires its policy to be represented, but permitting all others to be filled by persons selected with sole reference to efficiency of public service, and the right of all citizens to share in the honor of rendering faithful service to their country.

SIXTH—We rejoice at the quickened conscience of the people concerning political affairs and will hold all public officers to a rigid responsibility, and engage that the prosecution and punishment of all who betray official trusts shall be speedy, thorough and unsparing.

SEVENTH—The public school system of the several States is the bulwark of the American nation and the Republic and, with a view to its security and permanence, we recommend an amendment to the Constitution of the United States forbidding the application of any public funds or property for the benefit of any schools or institutions under sectarian control.

EIGHTH—The revenue necessary for current expenditures and the obligation of the public debt must be largely derived from duties on importations, which, so far as possible, should be adjusted to promote the interest of American labor and advance the prosperity of the whole country.

NINTH—We reaffirm our opposition to further grants of the public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be devoted to free homes for the people.

TENTH—It is the imperative duty of the Government so to modify the existing treaties with European Governments that the same protection shall be afforded to the naturalized American citizen that is given to the native-born citizen; that all necessary laws should be passed to protect immigrants, in the absence of power in the States for that purpose.

ELEVENTH—It is the immediate duty of Congress to fully investigate the effect of the immigration and importation of Mongolians upon the moral and material interests of the country.

TWELFTH—The Republican party recognizes, with approval, the substantial advance recently made toward the establishment of equal rights for women, by the many important amendments effected by Republican Legislatures in the laws which concern the personal and property relations of wives, mothers and widows, and by the appointment and election of women to the superintendency of institutions of education, charity and other public trusts. The honest demands of this class of citizens for additional rights and privileges and immunities should be treated with respectful consideration.

THIRTEENTH—The Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the Territories of the United States for their government, and in the exercise of this power it is the right and the duty of Congress to prohibit and extirpate, in the Territories, that relic of barbarism, polygamy; and we demand such legislation as shall secure this end and the supremacy of American institutions in all our Territories.

FOURTEENTH—The pledges which the nation has given to our soldiers and sailors must be fulfilled. This great people will always hold those who periled their lives for their country's preservation in the kindest remembrance.

FIFTEENTH—We sincerely deprecate all sectional feeling and tendencies, and we, therefore note with deep solicitude that the Democratic party counts, as its chief hopes of success, upon the electoral vote of a united South, secured through the efforts of those who were recently arrayed against the nation, and we invoke the earnest attention of the country to the grave truth that the success thus achieved would reopen sectional strife and imperil the national honor and human rights.

SIXTEENTH—We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason, with making its control of the House of Representatives the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes; with reasserting and applauding at the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion; with sending Union soldiers to the wall and promoting Confederate soldiers to the front; with deliberately proposing to repudiate the plighted faith of the government; with being equally false and imbecile in overshadowing the ends of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation; with proving itself, through the period of its ascendency in the Lower House of Congress, utterly incompetent to administer the Government, and we warn the country against trusting party thus alike unworthy, recreant and incapable.

SEVENTEENTH—The National Administration merits commendation for its honorable work in the management of domestic and foreign affairs and President Grant deserves the continued and hearty gratitude of the American people for his patriotism and his immense service in war and peace.
